

ADVOCACY WORKSHEET

Directions: Below ten situations involving advocacy are described. For each situation, circle whether it is an example of individual, service or government advocacy.

1. You encourage a friend to wear a helmet when riding her bicycle.	Individual Service Government
2. You partner with a group of women at your church and you decide to have weekly meetings about domestic violence within your community.	Individual Service Government
3. You are the head of a large coalition who successfully convinces policymakers to pass a law banning the dumping of chemical waste in the ocean.	Individual Service Government
4. You decide to sleep under a mosquito-net every night.	Individual Service Government
5. You organize a group of students at your school to write a letter to your Parliament member encouraging her to vote for a bill to provide more money for healthcare services.	Individual Service Government
6. You partner with a nonprofit organization in your community and together provide sexual health education to secondary school children in the schools around you.	Individual Service Government
7. You approach the chief of your village and convince the leaders of your community to help you fundraise to purchase a water filtration device for your village.	Individual Service Government
8. You give a presentation to a secretary who works for a member of Parliament about the link between trash burning and higher rates of cancer in communities around you.	Individual Service Government
9. Your mother makes you wash twice a day.	Individual Service Government
10. You decide to learn more about the Ebola virus outbreak in Liberia.	Individual Service Government

11. Come up with three actions that work on each of the three levels of advocacy (individual, service and government) involving an advocacy campaign on the issue of adolescent development.

ANSWER KEY TO ADVOCACY WORKSHEET

1. You encourage a friend to wear a helmet when riding her bicycle.	Individual Service Government
2. You partner with a group of women at your church and you decide to have weekly meetings about domestic violence within your community.	Individual Service Government
3. You are the head of a large coalition who successfully convinces policymakers to pass a law banning the dumping of chemical waste in the ocean.	Individual Service Government
4. You decide to sleep under a mosquito-net every night.	Individual Service Government
5. You organize a group of students at your school to write a letter to your Parliament member encouraging her to vote for a bill to provide more money for healthcare services.	Individual Service Government
6. You partner with a nonprofit organization in your community and together provide sexual health education to secondary school children in the schools around you.	Individual Service Government
7. You approach the chief of your village and convince the leaders of your community to help you fundraise to purchase a water filtration device for your village.	Individual Service Government
8. You give a presentation to a secretary who works for a member of Parliament about the link between trash burning and higher rates of cancer in communities around you.	Individual Service Government
9. Your mother makes you wash twice a day.	Individual Service Government
10. You decide to learn more about the Ebola virus outbreak in Liberia.	Individual Service Government

11. Answers will vary.